295 Blatchley Ave
October 5th, 2017

Start: 6:14pm

Welcome and Introduction

Elected Officials present: Jose Crespo (Alder), Robbie Roberts (Ward Co-Chair), Roland Lemar, Kevin Diaz (Police Commissioner), Kenneth Reveis (Alder)

Nominations

Pg. 3-4 of August Minutes misspelled Mishela's name

Quorum has not been reached; cannot approve or table Minutes

Police Report - 6:19pm

Introduce Sgt. Kendall, Street Boss

Passed around pictures of habitual offenders

There was gunfire at The Chatham, it was targeted not random — cameras will be installed at the end of next week, there will be extra officers placed in the area (not taking from Fair Haven's current force) hired by the Housing Authority

Update on the The Blue Light Project: Currently getting prices to be placed at three sites: 1) Chatham Square, Chapel/Ferry, and Blatchley/Grand

Partnered with LCI to go to Grand Cafe — found to be in violation of liquor violations and they made arrests for narcotics.

No murders this year, while there were two in 2016

Most crime is down from last year, except 28% increase in assault from firearm victims

All Police Reports are being emailed as well as put on the Fair Haven Management Team website

LCI - 6:33pm

Visited most bodegas with NHPD— introduced themselves and reminded them of the rules (close by 11pm, etc.)

Every 12 months they complete a vacant building count focusing on getting the vacant houses cleaned and secured

At 90 River Street, they cleaned up the fishing village after the gentleman tending to it left; someone is interested in buying it (marine-based business from out-of-state)

6:52pm

Minutes approved.
